16 MARCH 07

PRESS RELEASE – 7th March 2007
ISSUED BY – Arras People

Project Management Careers Clinic Sees Red

On Friday 16th March, Arras People will be running their Red Nose Project Management Career Clinic throughout the day for new and existing project management candidates, in support of Red Nose Day 2007 – The Big One. Candidates can choose between advice on their own project management career or gain advice on making improvements to their CV in a 30 minute session

Slots are available throughout the day starting at 9am, and each sessions costs £10. All donations will be matched by Arras People and all the money raised from the event will go to Comic Relief. Candidates can book their session through our website – www.arraspeople.co.uk

Lindsay Scott, Director of Arras People, said:

“We’ve been running this service for a number of years totally free to candidates and the feedback on how we’ve made a difference to candidates’ CV’s and careers has been brilliant. We wanted to do something different for Red Nose Day where we could involve our candidates so the “donations for advice” through the clinic service seemed the best idea. We’ll also be having fun during the day too with in-company silly competitions and jokes galore”
