

NEW OFFICE FOR THE PROJECT MANAGEMENT RECRUITMENT SPECIALISTS - ARRAS PEOPLE

Arras® People , the UK's leading programme and project management recruitment company, today announced the opening of their new Head Office in Greater Manchester. Previously Head Quartersed for the past two years in Norden, Lancashire, Arras People has seen substantial and profitable business expansion during this period leading up to the new office acquisition.

John Thorpe, Director of Arras People, said: " The new office allows us to continue expanding our service offering whilst at the same time continuing to gain new business and maintain the high level of service our existing clients expect from us. We're looking forward to recruiting further project management professionals to work as part of the Arras team and to expanding our service offerings especially in the exciting area of virtual project offices (Arras Virtual™).

Consolidating on from the successful introduction of our knowledge based services, the establishment of our Bedford office and our newly established London operation, our move to new Head Quarters in Manchester sees another phase of our business plan coming alive."
